

The Bottom Billion - Why the Poorest Countries are Failing and What Can Be Done About It, by Paul Collier

Review by: Philip Sansone

Recommended by The Economist as a middle point between Sachs' statism and Easterly's approach. I concur, except the "middle point" is about 80% towards Easterly's position.